

TRADE, COMMERCE AND INVESTMENT

Trade and Economic cooperation:

There exists huge potential for enhancement of trade and economic cooperation between the two countries which needs to be fully exploited. Jute products, pharmaceutical, ceramics, iron chin, tobacco, articles of paper pulp, paper yarn, articles of human hair and cotton bags are the mainstay of Bangladesh's export basket. The Nigerian importers may import various products and services from Bangladesh including pharmaceuticals, jute bags, ready-made garments, textiles ceramic products, light engineering, frozen fish, food items, leather, natural fibres, knit wears, footwear etc. which have great prospects in the Nigerian market. The volume of Nigerian imports from Bangladesh is insignificant but could be increased manifold. Nigeria could also export more to Bangladesh (oil, cotton, cashewnuts etc. are potential items). Bilateral trade volume between Bangladesh and Nigeria for the last 09 (nine) years are as under which is in favour of Nigeria:
