Message

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the inception of our diplomatic ties between the People's Republic of Bangladesh and the Kingdom of Bahrain. On this momentous occasion, I would like to extend my warmest greetings to the leadership, government, and the brotherly people of the Kingdom of Bahrain as well as my fellow Bangladeshi citizens who are residing in the Kingdom and contributing to the economies of both nations with their utmost dedication and hard work.

Over the past five decades, our two brotherly countries have fostered a comprehensive bilateral partnership premised on mutual respect, shared understanding, and solid cooperation. Our collaboration is now extended to many areas, including employment of human resources, trade and commerce, civil aviation, culture, people-to-people contact, and so on. We are indeed happy with the significant achievements that we have made so far together in strengthening our bilateral ties across various sectors for the benefit of both nations.

Looking ahead, I am filled with optimism and confidence that Bangladesh and Bahrain will witness an even closer partnership in the next 50 years. We are committed to working together to explore new areas of collaboration for our shared prospects and to promote peace, stability, and prosperity in our respective regions and beyond. The future holds immense potential for our continued growth and mutual benefit.

May our friendship and cooperation continue to flourish for generations to come.

Joi Bangla Joi Bangabandhu
Long live Bangladesh-Bahrain friendship.

Sheikh Hasina
