

OBSERVATION OF INDEPENDENCE DAY AND NATIONAL DAY OF BANGLADESH

26 March 2023
Embassy of Bangladesh, Stockholm

The Independence Day and National Day 2023 was celebrated by the Embassy of Bangladesh in Stockholm with joy and festivity.

To celebrate the day, the national flag was hoisted on the embassy premises early in the morning of 26th March.

A grand reception was also held at a Hotel in Stockholm on the occasion of Independence Day and National Day of Bangladesh, which was attended by ambassadors from various countries, parliamentarians, officials from various government and private institutions - including the Swedish Foreign Ministry, members of the diplomatic corps, heroic freedom fighters, academicians, business representatives, and other important guests.

The event opened with the national anthems of Bangladesh and Sweden. The Ambassador of Bangladesh Mr. Mehdi Hasan lauded Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, recognized the sacrifices of millions during the liberation war, and emphasized through audio-visual presentations Bangladesh's recent development and economic advancement under Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's leadership towards a prosperous future by 2041.

Reflecting on the excellent bilateral relations between the two friendly countries, the Ambassador thanked Sweden for its support to Bangladesh during the liberation war in 1971 and afterwards.

In the reception, various traditional Bangladeshi products - including clothes, handicrafts, etc. - were displayed at the exhibition corner. Lastly, the guests were treated with traditional Bangladeshi cuisine. Various documentaries on Bangladesh's history, heritage, culture, tourism and development were displayed during the reception
