

BANGLADESH'S GREAT VICTORY DAY

16 December 2023
Embassy of Bangladesh, Stockholm

The Great Victory Day was celebrated at the Embassy of Bangladesh, Stockholm, in a festive and joyous atmosphere on 16 December 2023. To celebrate the day, an art exhibition and cultural event is organized on the embassy premises.

All embassy officers, families and community members participated in the above program. Bangladesh achieved victory on 16 December 1971 after a 9-month-long Liberation War and became an Independent country. Ambassador Mehdi Hassan paid profound tribute to the Father of the nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and all the martyrs of the great war of freedom.

The Ambassador then had a conversation with Bangladesh nationals present, who expressed their feelings on Victory Day. In the end, an enjoyable cultural program was organized, where children and invited guests participated in various cultural performances including singing, dancing, poetry recitation, etc.
